

Ulysses S. Grant

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

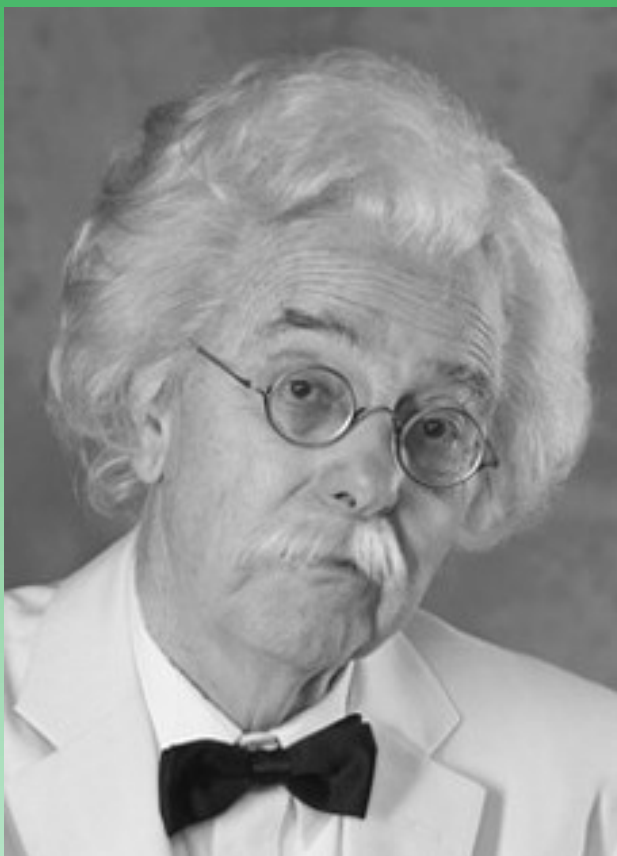

National Historic Site
Missouri

Join Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site for

MARK TWAIN

Portrayed by George Frein

Mark Twain is portrayed as the great American humorist who is also one of the nation's most influential writers and an astute observer of human nature. Following his presidency, Ulysses S. Grant befriended Mark Twain and the two remained close as the ailing Grant fought through intense pain to write his personal memoirs.

George Frein, PhD has been a scholar/performer since 1986. Retired from the University of North Dakota, he continues to perform around the country in the character of some of the most influential and interesting figures in American history.

Saturday, February 6, 2015
10 AM & 1 PM • Free

Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site 7400 Grant Rd. St. Louis, MO

For free reservations, call 314/842-1867 x230

Sponsored by Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site and supported by the Jefferson National Parks Association.